1. Important information and who we are

Purpose of this notice

This privacy notice aims to give you information on how Bedell Cristin collects and processes your personal data through your use of this website, including any data you may provide through this website.

This website is not intended for children and we do not knowingly collect data relating to children.

It is important that you read this privacy notice together with any other privacy notice or fair processing notice we may provide on specific occasions when we are collecting or processing personal data about you so that you are fully aware of how and why we are using your data. This privacy notice supplements the other notices and is not intended to override them.

Controller

Bedell Cristin is an organisation of separate legal practices and entities comprising partnerships and companies, each established to provide legal services under the Bedell Cristin name from the various locations in which it is based.

Bedell Cristin Jersey Partnership, Bedell Cristin Guernsey Partnership, Bedell Cristin London Partnership, Bedell Cristin (Singapore) LLP, Bedell Cristin BVI Partnership, Bedell Cristin Executors Limited and Bedell Channel Islands Limited (together, "Bedell Cristin", "we", "us" or "our") are jointly responsible for this website and will be the joint controllers of your data. For a summary of the how we have made arrangements between us so as to apportion our respective responsibilities as joint controllers, please contact us.

Contact us

We have appointed a data protection coordinator who is responsible for overseeing questions in relation to this privacy notice. If you have any questions about this privacy notice, including any requests to exercise your legal rights, please contact our data protection coordinator at dataprotection@bedellcristin.com.

You have the right to make a complaint in relation to data protection issues at any time to the UK's Information Commissioner's Office, the Jersey Data Protection Authority or the Guernsey Data Protection Authority. We would, however, appreciate the chance to deal with your concerns before you approach one of these supervisory authorities so please contact us in the first instance.

Changes to the privacy notice and your duty to inform us of changes

This privacy notice is effective from 25 May 2018. We will post any material changes that we may make to this privacy notice in the future on our website and, where appropriate, we will notify you of the change by email.

It is important that the personal data we hold about you is accurate and current. Please keep us informed if your personal data changes during your relationship with us.

Third-party links

This website may include links to third-party websites, plug-ins and applications. Clicking on those links or enabling those connections may allow third parties to collect or share data about you. We do not control these third-party websites and are not responsible for their privacy statements. When you leave our website, we encourage you to read the privacy notice of every website you visit.

2. The data we collect about you

Personal data, or personal information, means any information about an individual from which that person can be identified. It does not include data where the identity has been removed (anonymous data).

We will collect, use, store and transfer different kinds of personal data about you which we have grouped together follows:

- Identifying information (i.e. information used to identify you, such as your name.)
- Contact information (e.g. your postal address, telephone number, email address.)
- Professional information (e.g. where you work and your job title.)
- Technical data includes your internet protocol (IP) address, your login data, browser type and version, time zone setting and location, browser plug-in types and versions, operating system and platform and other technology on the devices you use to access our website.
- Profile data includes [your username and password], your interests, preferences, feedback and survey responses.
- Usage data meaning information about how you use our website.
- Marketing and communications data includes your preferences in receiving marketing from us and your communication preferences.

We also collect, use and share Aggregated Data such as statistical or demographic data for any purpose. Aggregated Data may be derived from your personal data but is not considered personal data in law as this data does not directly or indirectly reveal your identity. For example, we may aggregate your Usage Data to calculate the percentage of users accessing a specific website feature. However, if we combine or connect Aggregated Data with your personal data so that it can directly or indirectly identify you, we treat the combined data as personal data which will be used in accordance with this privacy notice.

We do not collect any Special Categories of Personal Data about you.

3. How is your personal data collected?

We use different methods to collect data from and about you including through:

- Direct interactions. From time to time we will create online forms which will ask you to voluntarily provide us with your Identifying, Contact and Professional Information such as your name, address, e-mail address place of work and job title and also with Profile and Marketing and Communications Data such as your interests and marketing and communications preferences.
- Automated technologies or interactions. As you interact with our website, we may automatically collect Technical Data about your equipment, browsing actions and patterns. We collect this personal data by using cookies, server logs and other similar technologies. We may also receive Technical Data about you if you visit other websites employing our cookies. Please see our cookie policy here for further details.
- Third parties. We may receive personal data about you from third parties (including, for example, providers of external services like web analysis services) who may also use cookies, over which we have no control. These cookies are likely to be analytical/performance cookies or targeting cookies. For example, our website uses Google Analytics, a web analytics service provided by Google, Inc. ("Google"). Google Analytics uses cookies (text files placed on your computer) to help website operators analyse how users use the site. The information generated by the cookie about your use of our website (including your IP address) will be transmitted to and stored by Google on servers in the United States. Google will use this information for the purpose of evaluating your use of the Website, compiling reports on website activity for website operators and providing other services relating to website activity and internet usage. Google may also transfer this information to third parties where required to do so by law, or where such third parties process the information on Google's behalf. Google will not associate your IP address with any other data held by Google.

4. How we use your personal data

We will only use your personal data when the law allows us to. Most commonly, we will use your personal data in the following circumstances:

- Where we have your consent.
- Where it is necessary for our legitimate interests (or those of a third party) and your interests and fundamental rights do not override those interests.
- Where we need to comply with a legal obligation.

Click here to find out more about the types of lawful basis that we will rely on to process your personal data.

Generally we do not rely on consent as a legal basis for processing your personal data other than in relation to sending direct marketing communications to you via email or text message. You have the right to withdraw consent to marketing at any time by using the 'unsubscribe' or 'preferences' option in the email or text message or by contacting us here.

Purposes for which we will use your personal data

We have set out below, in a table format, a description of all the ways we plan to use your personal data, and which of the legal bases we rely on to do so. We have also identified what our legitimate interests are, where appropriate.

Note that we may process your personal data for more than one lawful ground depending on the specific purpose for which we are using your data. Please contact us if you need details about the specific legal ground we are relying on to process your personal data where more than one ground has been set out in the table below.

Area	Type of data	Lawful basis for processing including basis of legitimate interest

To administer and protect our business and our website (including troubleshooting, data analysis, testing, system maintenance, support, reporting and hosting of data)	(a) Identifying information (b) Contact information (c) Technical data (d) Usage data	(a) Necessary for our legitimate interests (for running our business, network security, to prevent fraud and in the context of a business reorganisation or group restructuring exercise)

Marketing from us

You will receive marketing communications from us if you have requested information from us or used our services or if you provided us with your details (e.g. a business card) in a marketing context and, in each case, you have not opted out of receiving that marketing.

You can ask us to stop sending you marketing messages at any time by following the opt-out links on any marketing message sent to you or by contacting us at any time.

Where you opt-out of receiving these marketing messages, this will not apply to personal data provided to us for other purposes.

Cookies

You can set your browser to refuse all or some browser cookies, or to alert you when websites set or access cookies. If you disable or refuse cookies, please note that some parts of this website may become inaccessible or not function properly. For more information about the cookies we use, please click here.

Google adwords remarketing

Bedell Cristin uses, through its Website, the Google Adwords Remarketing service to advertise on third party websites to previous visitors to our Website. Google AdWords Remarketing is a remarketing and behavioural targeting service provided by Google. It connects activity on <https://www.bedellcristin.com> with the Google advertising network.

Google AdWords Remarketing displays relevant advertisements to you based on pages of the <http://www.Bedellcristin.co.uk> website that you have viewed by placing a cookie on your computer.

This cookie does not identify you or give us access to your computer.

Any data that we collect will be used in accordance with this Privacy Policy and Google's privacy policy.

You can opt out of Google Adwords Remarketing by visiting <http://www.google.com/settings/ads>
You can opt out of all third party cookie advertising by visiting <http://www.networkadvertising.org/choices>

Change of purpose

We will only use your personal data for the purposes for which we collected it, unless we reasonably consider that we need to use it for another reason and that reason is compatible with the original purpose. If you wish to get an explanation as to how the processing for the new purpose is compatible with the original purpose, please contact us.

If we need to use your personal data for an unrelated purpose, we will notify you and we will explain the legal basis which allows us to do so.

Please note that we may process your personal data without your knowledge or consent, in compliance with the above rules, where this is required or permitted by law.

5. Disclosures of your personal data

We may have to share your personal data with the parties set out below for the purposes set out in the table in paragraph 4 above.

- Internal Third Parties as set out in the Glossary.
- External Third Parties as set out in the Glossary.
- Third parties to whom we may choose to sell, transfer, or merge parts of our business or our assets. Alternatively, we may seek to acquire other businesses or merge with them. If a change happens to our business, then the new owners may use your personal data in the same way as set out in this privacy notice.

We require all third parties to respect the security of your personal data and to treat it in accordance with the law. We do not allow our third-party service providers to use your personal data for their own purposes and only permit them to process your personal data for specified purposes and in accordance with our instructions.

6. International transfers

We will share your personal data with Internal Third Parties. This will involve transferring your data outside Jersey, Guernsey and the European Economic Area (EEA).

Furthermore, many of our External Third Parties are based outside Jersey and the EEA so their processing of your personal data will involve a transfer of data outside Jersey, Guernsey and the EEA.

Whenever we transfer your personal data out of Jersey, Guernsey or the EEA, we ensure a similar degree of protection is afforded to it by ensuring at least one of the following safeguards is implemented:

- We will only transfer your personal data to countries that have been deemed to provide an adequate level of protection for personal data by the European Commission. For further details, see European Commission: Adequacy of the protection of personal data in non-EU countries.
- We may use specific contracts approved by the European Commission which give personal data the same protection it has in Europe. For further details, see European Commission: Model contracts for the transfer of personal data to third countries.
- Where we use providers based in the US, we may transfer data to them if they are part of the Privacy Shield which requires them to provide similar protection to personal data shared between Europe and the US. For further details, see European Commission: EU-US Privacy Shield.

If none of these safeguards are available in respect of a proposed transfer of your personal data out of Jersey, Guernsey or the EEA, we will explain the possible risks to you of the proposed transfer, following which, if you provide your explicit consent, we may proceed with the transfer.

Please contact us if you want further information on the specific mechanism used by us when transferring your personal data outside Jersey, Guernsey and the EEA.

7. Data security

We have put in place appropriate security measures to prevent your personal data from being accidentally lost, used or accessed in an unauthorised way, altered or disclosed. In addition, we limit access to your personal data to those employees, agents, contractors and other third parties who have a business need to know. They will only process your personal data on our instructions and they are subject to a duty of confidentiality.

We have put in place procedures to deal with any suspected personal data breach and will notify you and any applicable regulator of a breach where we are legally required to do so.

8. Data retention

How long will you use my personal data for?

We will only retain your personal data for as long as necessary to fulfil the purposes we collected it for, including for the purposes of satisfying any legal, accounting, or reporting requirements.

To determine the appropriate retention period for personal data, we consider the amount, nature, and sensitivity of the personal data, the potential risk of harm from unauthorised use or disclosure of your personal data, the purposes for which we process your personal data and whether we can achieve those purposes through other means, and the applicable legal requirements.

In some circumstances you can ask us to delete your data: see Request erasure below for further information.

9. Your legal rights

Under certain circumstances, you have rights under data protection laws in relation to your personal data. Please read the sections below to find out more about these rights:

- Request access to your personal data
- Request correction of your personal data
- Request erasure of your personal data
- Object to processing of your personal data
- Request restriction of processing your personal data
- Request transfer of your personal data
- Right to withdraw consent

If you wish to exercise any of the rights set out above, please contact us.

No fee usually required

You will not have to pay a fee to access your personal data (or to exercise any of the other rights). However, we may charge a reasonable fee if your request is clearly unfounded, repetitive or excessive. Alternatively, we may refuse to comply with your request in these circumstances.

What we may need from you

We may need to request specific information from you to help us confirm your identity and ensure your right to access your personal data (or to exercise any of your other rights). This is a security measure to ensure that personal data is not disclosed to any person who has no right to receive it. We may also contact you to ask you for further information in relation to your request to speed up our response.

Time limit to respond

We try to respond to all legitimate requests within four weeks. Occasionally it may take us longer than 4 weeks if your request is particularly complex or you have made a number of requests. In this case, we will notify you and keep you updated.

10. Glossary

External third parties

- Service providers who provide anti-money laundering screening services, client-facing application software, archiving and destruction services, business management software, telecommunications services, information technology services and marketing assistance to Bedell Cristin.
- Professional service providers including lawyers, bankers, auditors and insurers who provide legal, banking, accounting and insurance services to Bedell Cristin or our clients.
- Regulatory and tax authorities, the judiciary.

Internal third parties

Other Bedell Cristin branded partnerships and group companies, based in the British Virgin Islands, Guernsey, Jersey, Singapore and the United Kingdom.

Lawful basis

Comply with a legal obligation means processing your personal data where it is necessary for compliance with a legal or regulatory obligation that we are subject to.

Consent means a freely given, specific, informed and unambiguous indication of your wishes by which you, by a statement or by a clear affirmative action, signify agreement to the processing of your personal data.

Legitimate Interest means the interest of our business in conducting and managing our business to enable us to give you the best service and the best and most secure experience. We make sure we consider and balance any potential impact on you (both positive and negative) and your rights before we process your personal data for our legitimate interests. We do not use your personal data for activities where our interests are overridden by the impact on you (unless we have your consent or are otherwise required or permitted to by law). You can obtain further information about how we assess our legitimate interests against any potential impact on you in respect of specific activities by contacting us.

Special category data

- data revealing racial or ethnic origin, political opinions, religious or philosophical beliefs or trade union membership;
- genetic or biometric data that is processed for the purpose of uniquely identifying a natural person;
- data concerning health;
- data concerning a natural person's sex life or sexual orientation; or
- data relating to a natural person's criminal record or alleged criminal activity.

Your legal rights

You have the right to:

- Request access to your personal data (commonly known as a “data subject access request”). This enables you to receive a copy of the personal data we hold about you and to check that we are lawfully processing it.
- Request correction of the personal data that we hold about you. This enables you to have any incomplete or inaccurate data we hold about you corrected, though we may need to verify the accuracy of the new data you provide to us.
- Request erasure of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to delete or remove personal data where there is no good reason for us continuing to process it. You also have the right to ask us to delete or remove your personal data where you have successfully exercised your right to object to processing (see below), where we may have processed your information unlawfully or where we are required to erase your personal data to comply with local law. Note, however, that we may not always be able to comply with your request of erasure for specific legal reasons which will be notified to you, if applicable, at the time of your request.
- Object to processing of your personal data where we are relying on a legitimate interest (or those of a third party) and there is something about your particular situation which makes you want to object to processing on this ground as you feel it impacts on your fundamental rights and freedoms. You also have the right to object where we are processing your personal data for direct marketing purposes. In some cases, we may demonstrate that we have compelling legitimate grounds to process your information which override your rights and freedoms.
- Request restriction of processing of your personal data. This enables you to ask us to suspend the processing of your personal data in the following scenarios: (a) if you want us to establish the data's accuracy; (b) where our use of the data is unlawful but you do not want us to erase it; (c) where you need us to hold the data even if we no longer require it as you need it to establish, exercise or defend legal claims; or (d) you have objected to our use of your data but we need to verify whether we have overriding legitimate grounds to use it.
- Request the transfer of your personal data to you or to a third party. We will provide to you, or a third party you have chosen, your personal data in a structured, commonly used, machine-readable format. Note that this right only applies to automated information which you initially provided consent for us to use or where we used the information to perform a contract with you.
- Withdraw consent at any time where we are relying on consent to process your personal data. However, this will not affect the lawfulness of any processing carried out before you withdraw your consent. If you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide certain products or services to you. We will advise you if this is the case at the time you withdraw your consent.
