Medical professional registrations in the Cayman Islands

At Bedell Cristin, we offer comprehensive legal and administrative support to medical professionals seeking to practise in the Cayman Islands. Our team is well-versed in the requirements of the Health Practice Commission (HPC) and can assist with all aspects of the registration process.

To practise in the Cayman Islands, all medical professionals must be registered with the HPC and hold a valid licence. The registration process can involve careful preparation of documents, confirmation of qualifications, and adherence to the standards set by the relevant professional council under the Health Practice Act.

Our team has experience supporting businesses with their relocation and registration in the Cayman Islands. We understand the importance of ensuring that the process is handled efficiently, allowing you to focus on your medical practice and your patients.

Whether you are seeking to register as a doctor, nurse, dentist or other health practitioner, we can guide you through each step, providing clear advice and practical support to help you meet the necessary requirements and deadlines with confidence.

KEY CONSIDERATIONS

Health Practice Commission registration:

All medical professionals must be registered or licensed with the HPC in accordance with local regulatory requirements.

Work permits and residency:

Healthcare professionals require a work permit or permanent residency granted by Workforce Opportunities and Residency Cayman (WORC) to work in the Cayman Islands.

Trade and business licensing:

A Trade and Business Licence is required to establish a medical practice or clinic, and a Local Companies (Control) Licence may be needed in certain cases.

Employment contracts:

Employment agreements must comply with local labour, pension and health insurance laws within clinical settings.

Shareholder agreements:

Shareholder agreements can set out the rights and obligations of parties, supporting clear frameworks for dispute resolution.

Ongoing compliance:

Medical professionals and practices are subject to ongoing compliance requirements, including renewals and regulatory updates, to maintain good standing in the Cayman Islands.
